A Warm Reception for New Teachers

Hicksville welcomed its new teachers with a reception on Wednesday, September 13th at Hicksville High School. After Dr. Carl Bonuso addressed the group, he and Rosemarie Coletti distributed official Hicksville School District pins to each of our new members. Board of Education president Phil Heckler and Trustee Sunita Manjrekar were on hand to offer their congratulations and take photos.

The Week in Activism

Let's Spread the Word!

The vote on the Constitutional Convention is quickly approaching. We know that on November 7th, we should vote NO, but how can we spread the word?

1. Place a "Vote NO" magnet on your car and/or wear the button.
2. Have one-on-one conversations with friends, family members, people on line at the supermarket, your mailman (you get the idea).
3. Use the "Why in Five" card to target the concerns the person may have. Don't focus on pensions when discussing someone who may not be expecting one.
- 4. Phone Bank with colleagues! At the NYSUT office, phone banks will begin at 3:30 pm on the dates below. The office is located at 1000 Woodbury Road in Woodbury.

Food will be served, so grab a friend and get dialing!

September 26 and 27.

October 2,3,4,5,11,12,16,17,18,19,23,24,25,26 and 30.

November 1,2 and 6.

THE NEW YORK STATE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

NOVEMBER 7, 2017

THE "CON-CON COUNTDOWN"

Educating People About the Con Con

This year we will knocking on doors across New York to let working men and women know about Constitutional Convention question, and why it is critical that they come out and vote this year against it!

Join us for a Labor to Labor walk or phone bank near you and together we can help spread the word!

Will you join us?
